The King City Police Department is proud to announce that Officer Steve Orozco has been overwhelmingly nominated by his supervisors and peers as the King City Police Department Officer of the Year. Officer Orozco joined the King City Police Department in July of 2014. In the short time that he has been with the department, he has proven himself to be an officer with very keen instincts, very proactive, and very concerned about the safety of the community. His talents were recognized in a very short time and he was selected to be a Field Training Officer.
