TYPE OF INCIDENT: 459 PC (Burglary, open business)

DATE: 07/21/17

CASE NUMBER: 17-0834

Victim: Safeway Supermarket
530 Canal King City, Ca.

Suspect: Adolfo Torres Sanchez 22yrs
Greenfield, Ca.

On July 21, 2017 at approx.. 1210 hours Officer of the King City Police Department were dispatched to the Safeway Supermarket, 530 Canal St. for a theft just occurred.

Upon the officers arrival the ensuing investigation revealed a Hispanic Male Adult, later identified as Adolfo Torres Sanchez, entered the store and removed several bottles of liquor, left the store bypassing several open cash registers and making no attempt to pay for the merchandise. The store employees estimate the loss at approx. $200.00. Sanchez was seen getting into a vehicle and the store employees obtained a license number to the getaway vehicle. The registered owner was out of Greenfield. Ca. With the assistance of Greenfield Police Officers the suspect vehicle was located in Greenfield. Officers of the Greenfield and King City Police Departments contacted a witness who identified Sanchez as the suspect in the theft. Sanchez was contacted at a residence in the 200 blk of Beech in Greenfield where he was taken into custody without incident. Sanchez had no money in him and admitted to the theft. A partial recovery of some of the stolen liquor was made. The estimated recovery is valued at approx. $25.00.

Sanchez was booked at the Monterey County Jail on the listed charges.
